AgencyWorks Adds PaperClip as Imaging Vendor

Salt Lake City, Utah (July 17, 2007) -The long-awaited integration of AgencyWorks and PaperClip Software, Inc.'s document imaging and management solution is finally here. Now, agencies will have even more choices when it comes to electronic imaging solutions that work hand in hand with AgencyWorks' suite of products.

PaperClip makes it easy for individuals, workgroups, and entire companies to archive, access, share and exchange documents -- all without paper. The integration with Agency Integrator provides new functionality that makes the paperless process more effective and efficient.

Now, Agency Integrator and PaperClip will share information, allowing application details from Agency Integrator to be copied and made accessible through the user's PaperClip Software by pressing a simple HotKey. Information need only be keyed in once, but is conveniently stored in both software applications, saving precious time on data entry and document scanning.

Always look to AgencyWorks for cutting-edge imaging solutions, and partnerships with the most-used vendors in the life insurance industry.
